From the Commander

Cdr Laura Zavalia, N

We have a lot going on:

West Marine

National has set up the Squadron to teach people how to use the virtual boat handling trainer. This will be going on with 6 other squadrons throughout the rest of the country. It is an opportunity to build a relationship with West Marines in our area for future events. They promise to give us tons of publicity.

Jim and John Goebel are doing the bulk of the work for us in our squadron in the logistics, what and how we will promote our serves and of course the set-up. Thank you, Jim and John.

We need some more volunteers for the 14-16th of May. Rick Wood will volunteer his time and expertise on the trainer. Lee Popham can give a day and possibly his two teenage sons who have been teaching this at the Miami boat show since they were 12. (They are now 16 and 15.) I will be there most of the 3 days.

<https://www.usps.org/php/bsvt/index.php>

Vessel Safety Check Certification Course

Lee Popham has been deputized by Margie Bariff to teach us how to become vessel safety check examiners. The date has not been set yet for the course so stay tuned to future emails.

We need 5 boats on trailers parked in the parking lot at HQ. If you can think of anyone that can trailer their boat so we can practice inspecting it, please let me know. We just need it for an afternoon.

Upcoming Social Events:

Picnic on the 8th of May

Keys rendezvous 5th of June.
